- HISTORY: Rancho Valencia has created an ambiance of style that is reflected in the beautiful landscape that surrounds the property. Rancho Valencia's tranquil and private environment has attracted celebrities such as Bill Gates, President Clinton, Michael Jordan and Rene Russo, to name a few. In May 2010, the resort entered a new era when it was acquired by a San Diego-based investment group led by Jeff and Hal Jacobs.
- ACCOMMODATIONS: Reminiscent of California haciendas, the resort is highlighted by custom furnishings, hand painted tiles, fireplaces and private garden patios provided in each suite. Rancho Valencia features 26 casitas, each with 49 beautifully appointed one and two-room suites, as well as the expansive Hacienda. Uniquely designed, each suite is accented by exposed white-washed beams, ceiling fans, cathedral ceilings, earth-tone stucco walls, clay tile roofs, glazed tile bordered fireplaces, plantation shuttered windows and French doors leading to a private patio shaded by an array of exquisite flowers.

Garden Casita options offer the choice of an 850 square-foot Del Mar suite, a 1,150 square-foot Rancho Santa Fe suite or a full casita (two-bedroom suites). The Grove casitas feature 950 square-foot Del Mar Grove suites and 1,250 square-foot Rancho Santa Fe Grove suites. Each suite includes a large and spacious bathroom, walk-in closet, dressing room, separate make-up vanity, wet bar and ample amenities of only the finest soaps and toiletries. Suite rates range from $375 to $1,675 per night.

The Hacienda, a magnificent 5,000 square-foot adobe home, provides the perfect intimate setting with three suites, a private swimming pool, three wood-burning fireplaces, spa and private garden patio. Hacienda suites rate range from $2,375 to $5,000 per night.
