Enter a 75-acre, Mediterranean-inspired Eden through private gates. Inside, olive groves protect the quietude. At RANCHO VALENCIA, perfection is their inspiration.

The expansive facilities here provide guests with unparalleled fitness amenities that include a picturesque yoga studio with its own reflection pond, two restaurants and a comprehensive list of spa treatments. The resort focuses on personal wellness through an organic and professional approach where relaxation and personal performance are the metrics of success. Spa treatments complement fitness training. Reward yourself after giving your best in yoga, spin, TRX, or barre with their Signature Ritual, The Sixth Sense. A calming bath soak begins the 90 or 120-minute session, followed by a Harmonizing Scalp Massage with myrtle, juniper, organic jojoba, avocado and olive oils. Finally, a hand and foot paraffin treatment leaves your skin soft and youthful.

Rancho Valencia is proud to be the only spa in San Diego that carries Amala, a premier luxury skin care line with organic and sustainable ingredients sourced from global fair trade farmers.
