

MODERN LUXURY

RIVERA

SAN DIEGO

State of the
ART

INSIDE S.D.'S
THRIVING SCENE

THE CITY'S MOST FAMOUS FILMMAKER

BRIDGING THE FOODIE GAP

A MOD STUNNER IN SOLANA BEACH

HOLIDAY CURTAIN CALL!

AN INSIDE LOOK AT RESTORATION
HARDWARE'S EXPANDING EMPIRE

SPARKLE AND POP:
FESTIVE RESORT LOOKS

ACTRESS ZOË SALDANA
ON HOLLYWOOD, FAMILY AND HER LATEST ROLE

FAB 5

All About Eve

WHERE TO BE WHEN THE CLOCK STRIKES MIDNIGHT?
READ ON... —Amy Finley

1.

The Bivouac at US Grant

Hosted in the Celestial Ballroom—S.D.'s original speakeasy—there's Champagne at the flapper station, bottle service options, and a live band and DJ creating the Gatsby-a-go-go groove. $55, usgrant.net

2.

Mad Men at The Westgate

It's vintage craft cocktails then a little (five-course) din-din before Lorraine Castellanos' quartet starts swinging at this retro-glam, Mad Men-themed fete. $179, westgatehotel.com

3.

Andaz San Diego

Party under the stars at this chic, tri-level, all-access party raging between Katsuya downstairs, Andaz Wine Bar and S.D.'s largest rooftop space. $25, rooftop600.com

4.

The Hotel Del

Sip Champagne in the elegant Crown Room, feast lavishly in the Ballroom; then dance to The Mar Dels at Coronado's classic celebration, Pure Magic. $300, hoteldel.com

5.

Rancho Valencia

Chef Eric Bauer pulls out all the culinary stops to craft a New Year's Eve prix fixe dinner that's end-of-the-year-blowout-worthy. After all, your diet begins Jan. 1. $275, ranchovalencia.com

